In response to your correspondence dated September 25, 2018 the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) - International Events and Convention Services Program (IECSP) officially recognizes the following event:

176th Meeting of the Acoustical Society of America
And 2018 Acoustics Week in Canada
November 5-9, 2018
Victoria Conference Centre and the Fairmont Empress Hotel
Victoria, BC

The information provided to the CBSA states there will be approximately 1200 delegates and/or attendees, of which 90% is foreign to Canada. It is understood that the event is closed to the general public, with no sales of merchandise on the exhibit floor.

As outlined in your correspondence, this event is not expecting any foreign exhibitors, however the event organizer will/may be importing meeting supplies, computers, slides, printed materials and other convention materials for use at the event.

It should be noted that, non-Canadian exhibitors may import display items and exhibit booths temporarily as outlined in the provisions of tariff classification 9993.00.00.00 duty free, on the condition that the goods will be exported from Canada upon the completion of the event.

It has been determined that this event qualifies under the provisions of the Foreign Organization Remission Order as outlined in tariff classification 9830.00.00.00. Conference materials (i.e. office paraphernalia, souvenirs, printed matter, pens, decorations, etc.) may enter Canada free of duty and taxes, provided the items will be exported upon the completion of the event.

Foreign exhibitors importing goods into Canada from the United States should consult with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (USCBP) prior to shipping any convention materials. It is required that goods valued over $2000 USD be reported to USCBP. USCBP may document the goods on a form 4455 in order to identify the goods upon return to the US.

CBSA requires everyone seeking admission into Canada to properly declare themselves to CBSA by providing accurate identification. CBSA will accept a valid passport as proof of citizenship. Persons who have been convicted of any criminal offences may be inadmissible to Canada. For more information please visit:

<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/inadmissibility/index.asp>

If you have attendees from visa-requiring countries (<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp>), please contact the Special Events Unit of Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) at special.events@cic.gc.ca with the specifics of your event. They will assess the visa requirements of your event.

To ensure that organizers and participants of your event are aware of requirements for entry to Canada, the information provided to the CBSA may be shared with CIC. The CIC may, in turn contact event organizers to confirm details of your event and provide further direction regarding admission to Canada for those attending your event.

To facilitate border procedures it is recommended that foreign attendees and foreign exhibitors be provided a copy of this letter for presentation to a CBSA Border Services Officer upon their arrival to Canada.

In conjunction with the presentation of this Recognition Letter, an itemized list of goods including a description, country of origin, quantity and value is required for presentation to CBSA. If your event materials will be imported by a commercial carrier or courier service, a copy of this letter should also be attached to any shipping documents.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you have any questions or require additional information.

Sincerely,

Sheila A. Curran
